About Dr. Shibanii Kasulla

Dr. Shibanii Kasulla has experienced psychic encounters since she was a child. She was nudged towards spiritual life when she received her grandfather's guru mantra after his passing. She is closely connected with the deity Shri Dattaguru, and believes she is his instrument to guide others in this lifetime. Dr. Shibanii started working in the occult space in 1995.

She believes her role is to clear myths and blocks that hold back a soul's evolution in each lifetime. "The spiritual path," she says, "is a river with many hurdles; but it still flows into the ocean. My job is to help people develop their own practice - be it through horoscopes, vastu, meditation or an intensive - to carry on in their path. To remind them what their real work in this lifetime is." She untangles tradition from the yolk of rites and rituals, and leads all worship from the soul.

Her annual parayan is one example of this. She was nudged to read the Gurucharitra in 2006, a practice usually forbidden to women. She bought a copy in Girgaum, Mumbai and began to read. "It was in Sanskrit," she said, "and I didn't understand so many words. But I felt Dattaguru's love and presence. He would lovingly explain what it meant in my dreams and meditation. I may not have understood the words, but the connection was established." She now leads a group on this annual practice, doing away with all the strict rules one is supposed to follow over those days. "You are supposed to shun non-veg or rich foods, and sleep on the floor, etc. You can't read if you are in your menses," she says. "These rules may have made sense in the times the Gurucharitra was written, but not today. The essence is not about following the rituals and feeling holy, but connecting to the deity and establishing a relationship with him, and feeling his presence with you in each and every moment.

The Dishaa Group

She's founder-director of The Dishaa Group that offers consultation services for spiritual energy related challenges. The Dishaa Kutir in Seawoods, Navi Mumbai (Maharashtra) is the physical heart of her work. It's the 'work station' for high frequency beings such as angels, spirit animals, cosmic masters and guides, ancestors and guardians. It was formerly her home.

"When I started vastu, tarot and astrology consults," says Dr. Kasulla, "I had no place to consult. There was just one computer in the narrow sit-out area outside our home, and the clients would sit on the steps! But the place always resounded with good vibes. I wanted to create a space where people could be with their souls and be the real themselves.

"Many masters come into this place and aid my work. I was just so happy that people were just flowing in! I am happy to say the sanctity of predictions has not gone down even a notch because of DJ [a nickname for Dattaguru]."

The Dishaa Kutir hosts full moon and new moon meditations, and also practices for manifestation or soul work on other celestial events. It is also where she conducts healing sessions and consultations.
